Dear Miss White:

We are running into a bit of difficulty in trying to get Mr. Correa reimbursed for his long distance telephone calls. We are submitting vouchers claiming reimbursement for the calls, and we believe he will be paid for the calls already made. However, it has been requested that the calls be made "collect" hereafter. Thus, they will be put on the normal bill to the National Security Council and there will be no federal tax involved.

I believe this will be, perhaps, more convenient for you also.

Very sincerely,

Orine Cypert
Secretary to Mr. Blum
